

STORIES OF CRETE

Between Childhood and War

A theatrical fusion of dramatic storytelling, songs and music from the island of Crete to leave you spell bound!

With award winning performance storyteller Anna Conomos, and the internationally acclaimed musicians Rebecca Vucetic and Kostas Kopanaris.

www.performancestoryteller.com

- The Daughter of the Pomegranate Tree:

A traditional Cretan Folk Tale with a bewitching twist!

- The Ring:

A powerful Story of Survival bringing to life personal and untold narratives of survivors who, as children, experienced the Battle of Crete and were active in the resistance against the Nazi forces between 1941-1945.

Friday 18 May 2018

19:30 start. Tickets £12/£10

For adults and ages 10+

The Story Museum, Oxford

42 Pembroke St, OX1 1BP

Tickets can be purchased online

www.storymuseum.org.uk/whats-on/by phone 01865 807600 or in person from The Story Museum in Oxford